

Week 1: Tuesday 19th January 2016

Ryan MacDonald, Institute of Astronomy, Cambridge
Phobos sample return: Where did the Martian Moons come from?

Week 3: Tuesday 2nd February 2016

Jonathan Shanklin, British Antarctic Survey
The Voyages of a CUAS tie - an amateur astronomer in Antarctica

Week 4: Tuesday 9th February 2016

Dr. Ciro Pinto, Institute of Astronomy, Cambridge
Aftermath of Supermassive Black Holes in clusters of galaxies up to Megaparsec scales

Week 5: Tuesday, 16th February 2016

Prof. Craig Mackay, Institute of Astronomy, Cambridge
Seeing Further and Fainter: How Modern Technology Has Expanded Our View of the Universe

Week 6: Tuesday 23rd February 2016

Dr. David Green, Battcock Centre for Experimental Astrophysics, Cavendish Laboratory
Historical supernovae in our Galaxy and their remnants

Week 7: Monday 29th February 2016

Dr Henrik Latter, DAMPT, Cambridge
Title: To be Announced

Week 8: Monday 7th March 2016

Dr Robert Izzard, Institute of Astronomy, Cambridge
Title: To be Announced

All speaker events begin at 7:30 pm in Wolfson Lecture Theatre,
Department of Chemistry, Lensfield Road(CB2 1EW)

These events are free to all CUAS Members. Follow CUAS on FB and the Society's website to get the latest information about upcoming events.